

WTC Pune hosts UKTI–L&P BDO Globalist Round Table

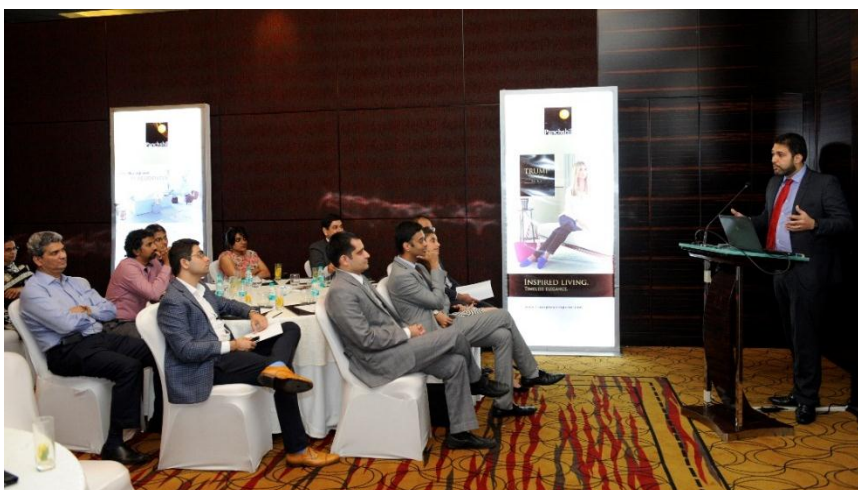

PUNE, INDIA - The World Trade Center Pune and BDO India hosted a round-table at Pune on 15 September with speakers from London & Partners (L&P) UK and UK Trade & Investment (UKTI). UKTI - a non-ministerial department in UK along with L&P - the official promotional company that promotes London and attracts businesses, events, congresses, students and visitors to London delved on “Opportunities & Challenges for Global Businesses”. The World Trade Center Pune and BDO India hosted a round-table at Pune on 15 September with speakers from London & Partners (L&P) UK and UK Trade & Investment (UKTI).

WTC Pune welcomed participants. Mr. Sagar Shah, Partner - BDO India gave the keynote address. The event included a special session on the “Concept Introduction of POEM – Place of Effective Management”. Mr. Neelesh Khandelwal spoke on POEM along with Mr. Gautam Sehgal of L&P.

Mr. Philip Sydenham of UKTI spoke on the tax and regulatory framework in UK -acting as a door to the European Market for fostering cross-border trade & investment.

Mr. Arbinder Chatwal, Head – India Advisory Service, BDO UK from London moderated the event. Participants included high profile corporate leaders from Pune region.

Recently United States Department of Commerce and US Commercial Service, Mumbai commended contribution of World Trade Center Pune, India. Ms. Camille Richardson - Principal Commercial Officer and Mr. Geoffrey Parish, Commercial Officer -- USCS honoured WTC Pune with a Certificate Of Appreciation for supporting US Government Business Outreach program and furthering India-US bilateral ties and business.